Q1) A – Read this text carefully.

An important businessman went to see his doctor because he could not sleep at night. The doctor examined him carefully and then said to him, ' Your trouble is that you need to learn to relax. Have you got any hobbies?' The businessman thought for a few moments and then said, 'No, doctor, I haven't. I don't have any time for hobbies.' 'Well,' the doctor answered, 'That is your main trouble, you see. You don't have time for anything except your work. You must find some hobbies and you must learn to relax with them, or you will be dead in less than five years. Why don't you learn to paint pictures?' ' All right, doctor,' the businessman said. 'I'll try that. Then next day he telephoned the doctor and said. 'That was a very good idea of yours, doctor. Thank you very much. I've already painted fifteen pictures since I saw you.'

Q1) A- Read the following story.

As Anna and Emily were on their way to visit some friends, their car broke down. Anna, like many people, knew nothing about cars. Luckily, there was a garage not far away from the spot and with the help of some people the car was brought there. Soon the mechanic came and without noticing the engine he claimed that the matter was serious and they had to leave the car there for it needed a full day's work. The mechanic had certainly discovered that his visitors knew nothing about cars. Emily suggested that he should at least look at the engine for it might need some fitting. The mechanic opened the bonnet and again insisted that it was serious. Then he turned to his workshop waiting for their decision. It happened that Emily noticed a loose wire and asked Anna to put it in place. She did so and to their great pleasure, the engine started. The mechanic was astonished to find out that the car had disappeared when he came out later.

Now answer (five) of the following questions:

1. Was the mechanic honest ?

Q1) A- Read the following story.

As Anna and Emily were on their way to visit some friends, their car broke down. Anna, like many people, knew nothing about cars. Luckily, there was a garage not far away from the spot and with the help of some people the car was brought there. Soon the mechanic came and without noticing the engine he claimed that the matter was serious and they had to leave the car there for it needed a full day's work. The mechanic had certainly discovered that his visitors knew nothing about cars. Emily suggested that he should at least look at the engine for it might need some fitting. The mechanic opened the bonnet and again insisted that it was serious. Then he turned to his workshop waiting for their decision. It happened that Emily noticed a loose wire and asked Anna to put it in place. She did so and to their great pleasure, the engine started. The mechanic was astonished to find out that the car had disappeared when he came out later.
